

Comparisons Using Like

A. Work with a partner. Take turns making comparisons with like. First, choose any word from the first column. Find a similar word in the second column and make a sentence with like. Then explain how the two words are similar.

Paris	vanilla
chocolate	a star
the moon	London

For example:

Student A: Chocolate is like vanilla. They are both flavors of ice cream. Now it's your turn.

Student B: Paris is like London. They are both cities in Europe. Your turn.

Student A: The moon is like a star. They are both in the night sky. Your turn.

B. Now make sentences with the words below. With a partner, take turns making comparisons with like. Explain how the two words in your sentence are similar.

orange juice	soccer
the Nile	Tylenol
ears	a trumpet
Beijing	a screwdriver
Toyota	Chile
aspirin	July
August	the Amazon
a hammer	a fly
a dollar bill	milk
tennis	Bangkok
a violin	a dime
California	mathematics
Bolivia	Texas
history	hands
a mosquito	Honda

(This exercise is modeled after the one on p. 473 in Basic English Grammar, Fourth Edition, by Betty Azar and Stacy Hagen.)